Would Mortgage the Farm.

A Farmer on Rural Route 2, Empire, Ga., W. A. Floyd by name, says: "Bucklen's Arnica Salve cured the two worst sores I ever saw; one on my hand and one on my leg. ## One Fare Rate Secured For The Newport Convention.

For the first time in several years we have secured a one fare rate to our State Convention at Newport, October 11. With the magnificent program this ought to insure by far the largest convention ever held in the State. The selling dates are Oct. 7, 8, 9 and 10, good returning to leave Newport not later than midnight, Oct. 12. This will give all the delegates a day of sight seeing in Cincinnati, if they prefer to remain over the 12th. No stop over privileges are allowed.

Each county is entitled to three sets of delegates. First, 10 at large selected by the county association, or appointed by the county president or secretary; second, delegates appointed by the Sunday schools, each school in the State is entitled to one delegate for every 100 or major fraction thereof enrolled; third, pastors and superintendents are ex officio delegates. Every delegate must have credentials signed by one of the county officers. This entitles them to free entertainment on the Harvard plan, that is for breakfast and lodging. Meals will be served near the church for 25 cents. To insure entertainment the name of every delegate should be sent to the chairman of the entertainment committee, Rev. H. T. Hanshue, Newport, not later than Oct. 1st.

Every county within 100 miles ought to send its full delegation as this is to be the very best convention we ever held, and it comes at a time in the history of the Sunday school work in the State when it can accomplish most. Every Sunday school is urged to send at least one delegate, and if they can not find any one who is willing to pay his own way, it would be a good investment for the school to pay the way of the pastor, superintendent or some earnest teacher.

For program and detail information call on your county president or secretary, or write to the State secretary, E. A. Fox, 712, Louisville Trust Building, Louisville, Ky.

Stomach troubles would more quickly disappear if the idea of treating the cause, rather than the effect, would come into practice. A tiny, inside, hidden nerve, says Dr. Shoop, governs and gives strength to the stomach. A branch also goes to the heart, and one to the kidneys. When these "inside nerves" fail, then the organs must falter. Dr. Shoop's Restorative is directed specifically to these failing nerves. Within 48 hours after starting the Restorative treatment patients say they realize a gain. Sold by Penny's Drug Store.

State Treasurer Edwin Farley says he will have enough money in the treasury next week to pay all the country school teachers in the State the first installment due them, which amounts to about $375,000.

The Boy—There ain't no chance about it, sir—they all cheats!

Foley's Honey and Tar cures coughs quickly, strengthens the lungs and expels colds. Get the genuine in a yellow package. New Stanford Drug Co.

After Gallipolis and Gallia county, Ohio, had voted "dry" by 1,700 majority, Dr. Charles Parker, president of the County Anti-Saloon League, fought a bloody battle with John North, a local saloon keeper, over the election. Parker stabbed North several times, and North may die.

Judge Stout holds that under the act creating the office, it is provided that the term shall be for four years, and that Hedden under appointment of the previous board holds a good title to the office for that length of time. If there be (and we emphasize the "if") any democrat in Kentucky, who, in this glorious autumn so full of promise for full fruition of hopes so long deferred—if there be any Kentucky or Lincoln county democrat, who, marked with the honorable scars won in battles of other years—if there be any democrat who feels that, while struggling in the ranks in other days, he was betrayed by those who are now captains and colonels in the great army marching toward Washington—if there be any democrat in Kentucky, any democrats who brood over the loss of days and nights of toil which might have been of avail but for the desertion of now promoted and then trusted privates and officers—if there be any democrat who believes or remembers that some of Kentucky's most gallant leaders were slaughtered by rewarded mutineers, if (we repeat) there are any such in Lincoln county or Kentucky, the INTERIOR JOURNAL is hereto beg them, to plead with them as to brothers whose woes, it too knows how to feel, to never be caught even for a moment, sulking in their tents; to forget at least, until November 3, any wrong that they or their leaders have endured; to forget now if they never have before nor can again, the stealthy stab dealt them by any of the privates or officers now in the columns marching on; to listen only to the bugle that sounds such promise of victory as it never has before; to look ahead, past captains and colonels and reclaimed deserters, to where in the very front of the whole of the greatest army the world has ever known, there leads as even he never lead before, the most gallant general, who has taught an onlooking, wondering world that a plumed knight, a christian man, a patriotic statesman, a great genius, a popular ideal and the hope of the world's greatest nation can be united in the same identity.

And again if (for we know of none) there be any democrat in Kentucky who is so disheartened by the really strange mutations of time and politics, that he can not feel the thrill that has electrified a nation; that has promised victory in an hundred places where the enemy has been entrenched for generations—if there be any such anywhere in Kentucky, we beg of them to remember this: Kentucky democracy could never live down; could never blot out the humiliating, black pages of her record; if she were to remotely contribute to, or even seem in part responsible for the defeat in this glorious year of the gallant leader who never yet saw a Kentucky democrat in distress; who never saw a democratic nominee in need, without flying with the wings of the wind, irrespective of his own welfare, to that brother's succor and aid.

MR. BRYAN said in his Cincinnati speech: "I think that I pay Mr. Taft a higher compliment in assuming that he is able to conduct his own campaign than the president does in contending with him the leadership of the party in the campaign." Mr. Bryan says something every time he opens his mouth.

ACCORDING to the report to the geological survey just made public, accidents in coal mines of the United States during the last calendar year resulted in the death of 3,125 men and injury of 5,134 more. With all the inventions to make mining safer, this wholesale slaughter is inexcusable and calls loudly for legal action to force the introduction of life preserving apparatus.

AN effort is being made by the Gideons, an organization of christian traveling men, to place a Bible in each room of every hotel in the United States. An excellent move, in which we hope the splendid order will be successful.

BRYAN has Taft going some now. The latter made 16 speeches in South Dakota Monday. However, 16 of Taft's speeches wouldn't equal one of Bryan's. The correct ratio would be about 100 to one.

POLITICAL.

A democratic Senatorial primary will be held in Jessamine, Woodford and Scott counties on Nov. 14.

Hiram Farmer has withdrawn from the race for the republican nomination for Commonwealth's attorney in the London district.

Certificates of their nomination were filed with the Secretary of State at Frankfort by the presidential electors on the Independence League ticket, which is backed by W. R. Hearst.

Twelve candidates for presidential electors were named by the New Jersey Democratic State Convention at Trenton Monday. The platform indorsed the work of the National Democratic Convention.

J. Alexander Chiles, one of the leading Negro lawyers and influential men among his race in Kentucky, has repudiated Taft and will use his influence in the interest of Bryan.

President Roosevelt will not reply to the latest letter of William J. Bryan. Secretary Loeb says that the President felt that inasmuch as Mr. Bryan's letter was simply an attack on him personally there was no reason why he should answer it.

William J. Bryan asked the Democrats of Lincoln, Neb., to remove the lithographs of himself from store and residence windows during the visit of W. H. Taft there. These pictures were the germ of an exhibition of intense partisanship early in the campaign.

Circuit Judge James M. Benton, has announced his candidacy for re-election from the Twenty-fifth judicial district composed of Clark, Powell, Madison, and Jessamine counties. So far no other candidate has announced and it is not believed that he will have opposition.

Gov. Hanly is getting some hard knocks during the closing days of his special session. In addition to bribery charges against him, alleged by Representative Knisely, which called forth a message from him demanding a rigid investigation, the night rider measure was defeated by his enemies in the republican ranks.

William J. Bryan replied to the last letter of President Roosevelt, addressed to him at Rock Island, Ill. He accuses the president of attempting to shift the issues raised and attacks his autocratic manner on the subject of trusts. In his answer Mr. Bryan says: "I have lived a life in vain if your accusations have lost me a single friend."

At the conclusion of Owsley Stanley's address at Hopkinsville, Clarence Lebus, president of the Burley Tobacco Association, was called upon. He had been a life-long Republican, he said, and had never voted any other ticket, but if he were in the Second district he would cast his ballot for Stanley, and urged every tobacco grower to do so. He announced that he was going to vote for Kehoe.

Luther W. Knisely, member from Dekalb county of the Lower House of the Indiana Legislature, now in special session, has signed an affidavit in support of a charge made by him on the floor of the House when he voted against the county option bill, that Gov. J. Frank Hanly had offered him a position paying $2,000 a year if he would vote for the bill. He names Senator Wickwire as the man through whom the offer was made.

At the Kentucky Woman's Christian Temperance Union convention, Chief Justice Edward O'Rear, of the Court of Appeals, declared for State-wide prohibition, as well as for prohibition throughout the Nation. He said that often injustice was done to local option counties by the Federal Government granting licenses. Another point was that the "White Ribboners" should get the Legislature to have an election for State-wide prohibition submitted to the people.

Where Bullets Flew.

David Parker, of Fayette, N. Y., a veteran of the civil war, who lost a foot at Gettysburg, says: "The good Electric Bitters have done is worth more than five hundred dollars to me. I spent much money doctoring for a bad case of stomach trouble, to little purpose. I then tried Electric Bitters, and they cured me. I now take them as a tonic, and they keep me strong and well." 50c. at Penny's Drug Store.

James T. Collins, cashier of the North Middletown Deposit Bank, has announced for the democratic nomination for Representative of Bourbon.

Recent reports having failed to indicate the presence of yellow fever in Havana, Cuba, the public health and marine hospital service has removed the quarantine against that city.

Thomas E. Watson, Populist candidate for President, says he has no chance of being elected, but he has hopes of breaking the solid South away from the grip of Northern Democrats.

The special session of the Indiana Legislature came to a close Wednesday. The session was a stormy one throughout and closed by exonerating Gov. Hanly of a bribery charge preferred against him by Representative Knisely.

Stop That Cold

To check early colds or Grippe with "Preventics" means sure defeat for Pneumonia. To stop a cold with Preventics is safer than to let it run and be obliged to cure it afterwards. To be sure, Preventics will cure even a deeply seated cold, but taken early—at the sneeze stage—they break, or head of those early colds. That's surely better. That's why they are called Preventics. Preventics are little Candy Cold Cures. No Quinine, no physic, nothing sickening. Nice for the children—and thoroughly safe too. If you feel chilly, if you sneeze, if you ache all over, think of Preventics. Promptness may also save half your usual sickness. And don't forget your child, if there is feverishness, night or day. Herein probably lies Preventics' greatest efficiency. Sold in 6c boxes for the pocket, also in 25c boxes of 48 Preventics. Insist on your druggists giving you

EARNST & FOX's presentation of Chasing the Rainbow at Walton's Opera House Wednesday evening was enjoyed by a small audience. ALLEN WINTER AT THE TROTS.—The sensational stallion, Allen Winter, which won the $50,000 handicap race at Boston in August, pulling down $30,000 in cold cash for his owner out of one race, is probably the largest winner ever on the trotting turf. He will start in two races during Kentucky's Great Trots at Lexington, which commence Tuesday, Oct. 6, and last until Oct. 16. During this meeting there will be great stake races trotted and paced daily; Weber and his Band, the best one in America, will give daily concerts, and all railroads in Kentucky will sell tickets for one fare round trip to Lexington. There is no race meeting like the Trots at Lexington. Think it over and come.

Canada's wheat crop in her three prairie provinces is officially estimated at 110,000,000 bushels; oats, 135,000,000 bushels, and barley 30,000,000 bushels.

The cotton crop of Georgia will be the shortest in years. A conservative estimate of the total yield is 1,300,000 bales, as against 2,100,000 bales last year.

The Middleburg Boys Getting Sauty.

MIDDLEBURG, Sept. 26.—The Casey County Stars chewed up the Hustonville boys Saturday 5 to 1. The Stars had their eyes open and sent Camnitz to the tall timber in six innings. The Hustonville boys were out-classed at all points and had no show to win at any time. Watkins, the Stars' pitcher, had them at his mercy at all stages of the game. In the eighth inning the Hustonville boys threw down their gloves and walked off of the field because the umpire saw fit to call a man out at the plate who was plainly out, even to all the spectators. They said that was the reason, but some think it was to keep the score 5 to 1 instead of making it worse. Any team wanting games with the Casey County Stars, address E. L. Gadberry, manager, Yosemite, or E. P. Wesley, Middleburg, Ky.

A Jeweler's Experience.

C. R. Kluger, The Jeweler, 1060 Virginia Ave., Indianapolis, Ind., writes: "I was so weak from kidney trouble that I could hardly walk a hundred feet. Four bottles of Foley's Kidney Remedy cleared my complexion, cured my back-ache and the irregularities disappeared, and I can now attend to business every day, and recommend Foley's Kidney Remedy to all sufferers, as it cured me after the doctors and other remedies had failed. Gen. E. B. Grubb, United States minister to Spain under President Harrison and former republican candidate for governor of New Jersey, has accepted the democratic nomination for Congress in the Second district of New Jersey. Gen. Grubb said, if elected, he will go to Congress as an independent.

Married Man In Trouble.

A married man who permits any member of the family to take anything except Foley's Honey and Tar, for coughs, colds and lung trouble, is guilty of neglect. Nothing else is as good for all pulmonary troubles. The genuine Foley's Honey and Tar contains no opiates and is in a yellow package. New Stanford Drug Co.

"Teacher says," exclaimed the precocious child, "that we live in the temperate zone."

"Yes," answered Col. Stilwell; "and if these prohibitionists keep going, it'll be worse than that."—Washington Star.

Gov. Haskell gave out a long letter to the President, in which he defends himself in a vigorous manner of the charges made by the President against him in his letters.
